

Urine Specimens in Pneumatic Tube

The COVID-19 virus is shed in the feces and urine. It is imperative when sending lab specimens in the pneumatic tube that you make sure they are sealed to prevent contents from spilling out, contaminating the system and exposing staff.

